

Chat with an Author!

What do you want to know about being a writer? Ask a writer!

My Own Cafe has invited author Alisa Libby to share the joys and challenges of being a writer, how to write fiction with historical characters and how to begin the writing process. The author of the teen novels The King's Rose and The Blood Confession will be our featured guest for the month of April. Register, login, chat.

My Own Cafe registered users between the ages of 13 and 18 who submit a piece of short fiction (two pages or less) featuring a historical character are eligible to win an autographed copy of The King's Rose. Go to www.myowncafe.org for more details.
